Coaching at Work Series of Masterclasses 2017

Deep Impact Coaching: Moving beyond ordinary, going beyond self

Julie Starr

Seminar date: Tuesday 24th October 2017

Venue: The BPS London Offices

Timings: 10.00am – 4.30pm

MASTERCLASS OUTLINE

This session takes experienced coaches through a provoking process to challenge their existing preconceptions about their role and approach as a coach. Julie will offer alternative perspectives on coaching as a profession, and suggest principles and practices we can adopt to strengthen and deepen our impact with clients. Come prepared to listen, work and share.

MASTERCLASS AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

- To support coaches to reach their personal 'next level' of coaching ability, effectiveness and impact
- To uncover pathways that ultimately strengthen our self-esteem as a coach
- To help individuals decide on their personal way forward, towards deeper impact coaching

MASTERCLASS CONTENT AND APPROACH

The session will be a lively mix of theory input, reflection and sharing, plus exercises intended to deepen understanding and integrate learning. Content will include:

- Common levels of ability and their behavioural attributes
- The importance of novice mindset and the trap of experience
- How you are what is getting in the way of reaching your next level in coaching
- Common barriers and blocks to coaching mastery
- Reaching our potential both as an individual and as a community
